

Matthew Lewis
Vice President Marine Manager for Canada

Matthew has overall responsibility for CNA's Canadian Marine Insurance operations across Cargo, Liability and Hull lines. He is responsible for aligning branch structure for Marine business with CNA's strategy to drive profitable growth.

Prior to joining CNA in 2008, Matthew worked for Nacora Insurance Brokers as Managing Director of their UK operations, followed by relocation to Canada in 2003 to take over the Chief Operating Officer role for Nacora in Canada. Nacora specializes in Marine business and are a wholly owned subsidiary of the International shipping and forwarding group Kuehne & Nagel. Prior to joining Nacora in 1995, Matthew spent 6 years working for Eagle Star Insurance Company in various underwriting roles within their Marine Department.

He received a bachelor's degree in Nautical Studies majoring in marine law and shipping economics from Polytechnic Southwest, Plymouth, UK and subsequently earned various professional qualifications including Associate of the Chartered Insurance Institute (ACII), Chartered Insurance Practitioner (CIP), and Registered Insurance Broker of Ontario (unrestricted license). Matthew has been serving on the CBMU Board of Directors since 2014 and was elected CBMU President in May, 2020.